a master of short story novel and nonfiction prose ernest hemingway has been the subject of countless books, articles, and biographies. The Nobel Prize-winning author and his work continue to interest academics whose studies of his personal life are frequently intertwined with examinations of his writing. In fifty years of Hemingway criticism, noted scholar Peter L. Hays has assembled a career-spanning collection of essays that explore the many facets of Hemingway's life, his contemporaries, and his creative output. Although Hays has published on other writers, Hemingway has been his main research interest, and this selection constitutes five decades of criticism arranged by subject matter. These essays focus on the novels the Sun Also Rises, A Farewell to Arms, For Whom the Bell Tolls, and The Old Man and the Sea, as well as the short stories The Undefeated, The Killers, Soldier's Home, and A Clean, Well-Lighted Place. Other chapters explore Hemingway's relationship with F. Scott Fitzgerald, teaching Hemingway in the classroom, and comparing Hemingway's work to writers such as Eugene O'Neill, Ford Madox Ford, and William Faulkner. When first published, some of these essays offered original views and insights that have since become standard interpretations, making them invaluable to readers easily accessible by both general readers and academic scholars. Fifty Years of Hemingway Criticism is an essential collection on one of America's greatest writers.

The Beatles - All These Years 2013-10-10

preface this is such a funny world where for everything that we do we need a license and for each and every license we go to school spend hours days and even years of studies but that is not enough we have to be subjugated to a test if we pass this test we will be granted a diploma a certificate or a license and then we will be qualified to practice whatever we have learned a food handler is not allowed to work in a kitchen unless he she passes a test on the rules and regulations of how to handle food and then he she will be granted a permit to work in the food industry a lawyer will spend years of intense studies and still would not be permitted to practice law unless he she passes the bar exam a physician a pharmacist a smog check tester a hair stylist a nurse a dental assistant a chiropractor and mostly any kind of job that will affect any other individual would need an intense course of studies and an exam before a license is granted but the most important of professions the one on which the future of the country depends on the one that the future of the society and the future of the family relies on the one that causes happiness and pleasure or sadness and depression the one that makes scholars and professionals or drug addicts and prostitutes of the children does not need a course of studies but anyone can go and get a license no questions asked this most important license of them all is the marriage license it does not mean however that dooms day is at the door it only means that if marriage is not going to be taken seriously the family as a whole will crumble from all the side effects of divorces separations quarrels and lack of communication and this is why each individual who is married or thinks of marriage should learn its abc's regardless of whether the government will mandate a school program in all its high schools for that purpose or offer marriage courses with tests before it grants a marriage license until we find other means marriage will continue to be the only way for the continuance of the human survival as it is known today there is no doubt that life will continue as long as the powerful among us will not use their ingenuity of mass destruction and turn our little planet into ashes it is very important to know something about the history of mankind and figure out the truths and the lies that the media showers us with every single day once we figure the truth it will be very easy to handle our lives in a more positive way history was greatly distorted and this book tackles a few of those distortions so that marriage will be meaningful significant and rewarding the book is full of real short stories about different people and different problems many people can and will identify with one or more of those real stories simply because they are common and each of them happened to too many people the purpose was to expose those situations anonymously find solutions and hope that they will benefit others before they fall in the same situation and not to demote or promote the character of any of the readers this informative book is for all married or single rich or poor religious or atheists even democrats or republicans so as to live a very loving rewarding and pleasant life and so as to see the hidden problems that might lie ahead and solve them before they destroy the family structure which is the basic foundation of the whole society and thus the whole country the first biography of america s greatest twentieth century sculptor alexander calder an authoritative and revelatory achievement based on a wealth of letters and papers never before available and written by one of our most renowned art critics alexander calder is one of the most beloved and widely admired artists of the twentieth century anybody who has ever set foot in a museum knows him as the inventor of the mobile america s unique contribution to modern art but only now forty years after the artist s death is the full story of his life being told in this biography which is based on unprecedented access to calder s letters and papers as well as scores of interviews jed perl shows us why Calder was and remains a barrier breaker, an avant garde artist with mass appeal. This beautifully written, deeply researched book opens with Calder’s wonderfully peripatetic upbringing in Philadelphia, California, and New York, born in 1898 into a family of artists. His father was a well-known sculptor, his mother a painter and a pioneering feminist. Calder went on as an adult to forge important friendships with a who’s who of twentieth-century artists including Joan Miró, Marcel Duchamp, Georges Braque, and Piet Mondrian. We move through Calder’s early years studying engineering to his first artistic triumphs in Paris in the late 1920s and to his emergence as a leader in the international abstract avant garde. His marriage in 1931 to the free-spirited Louisa James, she was a great niece of Henry James, is a richly romantic story related here with a wealth of detail and nuance. Calder’s life takes on a transatlantic richness from New York’s Greenwich Village in the roaring twenties to the Left Bank of Paris during the Depression and then back to the United States where the Calders bought a run-down old farmhouse in western Connecticut. New light is shed on Calder’s lifelong interest in dance, theater, and performance, ranging from the Cirque Calder, the theatrical event that became his calling card in bohemian Paris, to collaborations with the choreographer Martha Graham and the composer Virgil Thomson. More than 350 illustrations in color and black and white, including little-known works and many archival photographs that have never before been seen, further enrich the story.

The New York Times Book Review Editor’s Choice a celebration of MS, the most startling, most audacious, most norm-breaking of the magazine’s groundbreaking pieces on women, men, politics, sexual and otherwise. Marriage, family, education, work, motherhood, and reproductive rights as well as the best of the magazine’s fiction, poetry, and letters featuring Billie Jean King, Alison Bechdel, and Audre Lorde among many others. I’ve been a MS reader since its earliest days. The magazine’s bold boundary-breaking reporting has motivated me, infuriated me, and inspired me. And now this one extraordinary book: 50 years of MS captures it all. Jane Fonda, actor, and activist. MS in 1972 normalized being a woman, abortion, and all and here we are 50 years later needing that now more than ever. Sarah Silverman, comedian, actor, and writer for the past five decades, MS has been the nation’s most influential source of feminist ideas, and it remains at the forefront of feminism today, affecting thought and culture with a younger than ever readership ages 16-20. MS was the first U.S. magazine to feature prominent American women demanding the repeal of laws that criminalized abortion, explain and advocate for the equal rights amendment, rate presidential... candidates on women’s issues feature domestic violence and sexual harassment on its cover long before either was widely understood or acknowledged. Commission and publish a national study on date rape here is the best reporting fiction and advertising decade by decade as well as the best photographs and features that reveal and reflect the changes set in motion by Ms along with the iconic covers that galvanized readers here are essays, profiles, conversations with and features by Alice Walker, Cynthia Enloe, Pauli Murray, Nancy Pelosi, bell hooks, Eleanor Holmes Norton, Brittney Cooper, and Joy Harjo, as well as fiction and poetry by Toni Morrison, Joyce Carol Oates, Adrienne Rich, Rita Dove, and Sharon Olds, and many others.

New York Magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country with award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion. The magazine’s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea.

Calder: The Conquest of Time 2017-10-24

This book proceeds from a single and very simple observation throughout history and up to the present: women have received a clear message that we are not supposed to prioritize ourselves. Indeed, the whole question of self is a problem for women and a problem that issues from a wide range of locations including in some cases feminism itself. When women espouse discourses of self-interest, self-regard, and selfishness, they become illegible. This is complicated by the commodification of the self in the recent western mode of economic and political organization known as neoliberalism, which encourages a focus on self-fashioning that may or may not be identical with self-regard or self-interest. Drawing on figures from French, US, and UK contexts, including Rachilde, Ayn Rand, Margaret Thatcher, and Lionel Shriver and examining discourses from psychiatry, media, and feminism, with the aim of reading against the grain of multiple orthodoxies, this book asks how revisiting the words and works of selfish women of modernity can assist us in understanding our fraught individual and collective identities as women in contemporary culture and can women with politics that are contrary to the interests of the collective teach us anything about the value of rethinking the role of the individual? This book is an essential read for those with interests in cultural theory, feminist theory, and gender politics.
