The book provides conceptual understanding of essential concepts in business life. It details the foundations of business economics with special emphasis on demand analysis and consumer behaviour. It also discusses analysis of production and cost of the firm, market structures, and pricing of products. Factor pricing and income distribution are also discussed. The book concludes with a discussion on capital budgeting based on the author's extensive teaching experience. The book champions a collaborative approach to delivering an appropriate textbook that is curriculum relevant. The nineteenth edition of modern microeconomics continues to provide a detailed understanding of the foundations of microeconomics while providing a solid foundation for economic analysis. It also lucidly explains the mathematical derivations of various microeconomic concepts. This textbook would be extremely useful for the students of economics.

With a will of steel, Polish immigrant Florentyna Rosnovski is indeed Abel's daughter. She shares with her father a love of America, his ideals, and his dream for the future, but she wants more to be the first female president. Golden boy Richard Kane was born into a life of luxury, the scion of a banking magnate. He is successful, handsome, and determined to carve his own path in the world and to build a future with the woman he loves with Florentyna's ultimate goal—only a heartbeat away both are about to discover the shattering price of power as a titanic battle of betrayal and deception reaches out from the past.
