Race, Class, Parenting and Children’s Leisure

2022-11-03

children s leisure lives are changing with increasing dominance of organised activities and screen based leisure these shifts have reconfigured parenting practices too however our current understandings of these processes are race blind and based mostly on the experiences of white middle class families drawing on an innovative study of middle class british indian families this book brings children s and parents voices to the forefront and bridges childhood studies family studies and leisure studies to theorise children s leisure from a fresh perspective demonstrating the salience of both race and class in shaping leisure cultures within middle class racialised families this is an invaluable contribution to key sociological debates around leisure childhoods and parenting ideologies

the indian media is witnessing an explosive situation with newspaper and magazine circulations increasing in great numbers and television news channels in both english and regional languages going up by the day internet news portals too are recording a good number of hits journalism then holds tremendous promise for both seasoned and budding journalists however behind every promise there lurk dangers and temptations which must be scrupulously avoided if the basic values of the profession are to be safeguarded otherwise the relentless spotlight of criticism will turn on journalism and its practitioners 21st century journalism in india is a path breaking book that looks at the practices and theories of journalism in the 21st century this collection of writings by practising journalists is perhaps unique in that they have turned the spotlight on their own profession the volume is thematically divided into four sections representing the unrepresented deals with media representation or lack of it of largely ignored sections of society such as homosexuals, dalits, and other minorities or weaker groups. The plurality of practice studies the coverage of vital areas such as economics, legal issues, science, arts, and culture. Humour media in perspective looks at different kinds of journalistic practices including photojournalism. Future trends discuss newer forms of journalism like blogging and citizen journalism.
