the personal essay at its best what edward abbey did for the desert southwest and what e b white did for maine harrigan has done for texas houston chronicle in this remarkable collection of essays stephen harrigan explores with an unfailing depth of feeling the human longing to feel at home in the world of nature in vivid and convincing prose he evokes the landscape of his home territory texas and his own reactions sometimes droll sometimes haunted to the extraordinary power of place that texas projects like our best nature writers he tells us not only what s out there but connects it to our everyday lives a natural state is recommended reading not just for texans but for all who would explore their connections to the natural world the washington post while luminous is not a word that you would think of in connection with the lone star state that s what these pieces are they are filled with poetry wit and delightfully offbeat observations the san diego union tribune harrigan deftly weaves fact historical perspective and personal experience into a tightly interlaced evocative fabric by the end of the book he brings the vast texas landscape within grasp of even the most skeptical reader the denver post harrigan s observations are not those of an academically trained naturalist but rather the fresh outlook of a city bred tourist rejoicing in the exhilaration of discovery booklist though several of the essays display a strong ecological bent the author is never shrill he is an accomplished prose stylist who combines accurate research with an unerring eye for detail highly recommended
